

Everyone Agrees, Grace Works For Our Quality of Life

Grace with Brookhaven Town Councilman Ed Hennessey and Supervisor John LaValle commemorating beautification project for the entrance of the Manor of St. George in Shirley.

ELECT
Grace Ioannidis
Independent for Suffolk County
Legislator

Grace and the Citizens Action Coalition worked to create memorial remembering local resident New York Firefighter Kevin Smith.

Suffolk County Clerk Ed Romaine congratulates Grace for spearheading the Neighborhood Preservation Act Rental Law.

Grace and the Citizens Action Coalition thank Captain Frank Chirelli for his service to the community through the Suffolk County Police Department's COPE Unit, 7th Precinct.

Grace at press conference with Senator Ken LaValle and Assemblyman Fred Thiele to support state sober house legislation she fought for.

On Election Day
Tuesday, November 4, 2003,
Look for Grace on Line 7G,
For Quality of Life Candidate

Suffolk Life Publisher David Wilmott congratulates Grace upon being named Suffolk Life Brookhaven Civic Volunteer of the Year.

Below, Grace at coalition meeting holding petitions to support sober house legislation, including NYS Assemblyman Steve Levy and Assemblywoman Pat Eddington.

	<input type="checkbox"/> 5E Working Families Edward P. Romaine	<input type="checkbox"/> 6E Working Families Stop Corruption John Kelly	<input type="checkbox"/> 7E Working Families Peter O'Leary
	<input type="checkbox"/> 5F Stop Corruption Steve Levy
			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 7G For Quality of Life Altigracia (Grace) Ioannidis